The Cross Shaped Life

Part 4: Am I In My Sweet Spot?

INTRODUCTION

Every believer has been blessed by God with spiritual gifts, in order to serve others. Our challenge is to discover these gifts and use them to bring God glory. Each of us are a link in the chain of eternity and when we refuse to use our gifts, others are negatively impacted. The gifts we have been given refresh us when we discover and use them, which ultimately glorifies God.

WEEKLY READING

1 Peter 4:7-11

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Discuss the importance of every believer using their gifts to serve God.
2. According to 1 Peter 4:10 every believer has been equipped with a spiritual gift. What steps have you taken to discover your gifts?
3. Why is it important for believers to possess an attitude of gladness while serving (Psalm 100:2).
4. Discuss how God has used your service to impact the lives of others.
5. According to 1 Corinthians 15:58 our service to God will always be useful if we remain consistent and steadfast. How does knowing that God will use your service to Him encourage you to keep going when things get difficult?
6. What clutter do you need to remove from your life in order to better serve God

MORE TO COME

Discovering your sweet spot can be challenging but will ultimately be rewarding. The reward extends beyond your life and into the lives of those who God allows you to impact. Finding your gift can be difficult but remaining steadfast through the process will allow you to find your sweet spot. God calls us to join Him in redeeming others and the opportunity to serve others has an eternal impact.
